Bin. Brinkman deserted her several Rinths ago in favor of an affinity own as "Marie" and residing in Hooken. Mrs. Brinkman told Magistrate Vahle that she went to Hoboken to see Marie and beg her to leave the husband alone. - Brinkman, it would seem, was present at the interview. The wife said that "Marie" banged her on the head with a poker and then Brinkman took her by the throat and choked her. She said he told her that he would offer her as choice of taking $300 in cash and as choice of taking $300 in cash and leaving him and "Marie" alone or being killed. Lately she has been supporting herself by working as a maid at No. 4 Gramercy Square.

Brinkman dended the charges, but the Magistrate sided with the wife. He told Brinkman he was going to put lim under bonds of $500 for a year to pay his wife $10 a week.
"But, your Honor," protested Brinkman, "I only receive $3 a performance." Den't believe him." shouted the wife. "He is the first violin at the Broadway and he gets $15 a week."
So the ten-a-week arrangement stuck. There was nobody on hand to go on Brinkman's bond.

No Extra Charge for It.
